THE TROPICAL BLUE HUES OF MALAYSIA

Malaysia, a country located in the Southeast Asia is home to some of the most exotic tropical islands with an array of diverse cultures. Referred to as "Pulau" by the locals, Malaysia's love for nature's natural blue hues is symbolic as the country is enriched with over 800 islands scattered around the kilometers of the coastline. A blissful beach getaway in Malaysia shall welcome you to experience celebrity-standard resorts, world-class diving experiences with a mixture of local cultural entertainment that varies upon the ethnicity and location. This tropical tourist destination is not only about its beaches, but also comes with a package of incredible resorts, and adventurous activities to experience as we assure you, an escape to every beach in Malaysia shall deliver a different adversity.

Thus, follow along as we take an insider look to find out what the top islands are right here in Malaysia so you can decide for yourself.

Pulau Langkawi

Langkawi Island, an archipelago in Kedah that consists of 99 islands on the Northwest of Malaysia plays wonders to its geographic features that include a wide stretch of paddy fields and mountains that surround the horizon. This duty-free island is curated for shopping enthusiasts as customers are welcome to bring home a wide selection of souvenirs, handicrafts, household items, chocolates, electronics, liquor and tobacco tax free! Langkawi holds Southeast Asia's first ever UNESCO Global Geopark that welcomes you to one of the world's rarest natural wonders dated back from hundreds and millions of years ago. Discover Langkawi by hopping on to cable cars that overlook the panoramic view of the island and uncover a journey back in time beyond Langkawi's spectacular landscapes, breathtaking beaches and captivating mangrove forests. Langkawi is Malaysia's hidden wonder that entices your next beach discovery.

Pulau Tioman

Acclaimed as a geological wonder, this island is located on the southeastern side of the Peninsular that consists of 64 islands, with Tioman Island being its largest. Surrounded by alluring coral reefs and covered with pristine rainforest, Tioman is truly famous for its natural attractions and underwater activities. Despite being situated in the Pahang postcode, geographically Tioman Island sits right across Singapore with the easy access of entrance either by bus or ferry through Mersing, Johor. Pulau Tioman offers wonderful expeditions such as jungle trekking, a climb to Malaysia's majestic cascade of waterfalls, however the highlight of this island is witnessing baby turtles hatch at Juara Turtle Project. This Malaysian turtle sanctuary offers tourists the firsthand experience of comprehensive turtle hatcheries to preserve the endangered species. Due to the homegrown influence of two states, Pahang and Johor, Tioman additionally holds a reputation for its scrumptious cuisines. It plays no wonder that Tioman Island was once selected as the world's most beautiful island under the TIME Magazine with its hidden treasures that are still well preserved to date.
