Malaysia

Asia like never before

Imagine a banquet on a deserted island all to yourself, or cocktails perched on a skybridge high above virgin rainforests, or being ceremoniously welcomed by descendants of headhunters in their traditional longhouses. Whether urban or natural, these are experiences that can never be had anywhere else by anyone else. For a refreshing view of incentive programmes, look no further than Malaysia.

Malaysia represents the rich diversity and vibrancy of Asia's main ethnic cultures. Become immersed in a multitude of unique Asian experiences and see Malaysia like never before. Take a front row seat in settings as modern as the iconic PETRONAS Twin Towers or in a longhouse community within pristine and ancient rainforests.

Select from an interactive menu of tantalising activities and let the Malaysian experts at MyCEB guide you to selecting enriching experiences that will make your incentive programme truly motivating and memorable.

❖ Theme Events & Experiences

In Malaysia, you'll find a smorgasbord of authentic cultural and lifestyle experiences, set in unique and spectacular backdrops that will inspire the very best incentive programmes.

Batu Caves (Kuala Lumpur)

Ideal Venues:

- Kampung Tok Senik (Langkawi)
- Bon Ton Resort (Langkawi)

Tribal Village

Learn the local culture, traditions and lifestyle as a guest of the tribal chief from an ancient rainforest community. Be taken on an intrepid journey of discovery to appreciate how the indigenous people hunt and forage for their survival in the rainforest and then celebrate the occasion with a lavish lunch featuring forest delicacies.

Ideal Venues:

- Jungle Lodge (Kuala Lumpur)
- Sarawak Cultural Village (Sarawak)

Kampung Life

Join in a celebration of a Kenduri feast in a Kampung/Malay village setting where the sound of hand drums and tantalising smell from the spread of local dishes welcome you to the celebration.

Spice Market

Haggle with Malay, Arab, Chinese, Indian, Javanese and Burmese traders for spices, handicrafts and trinkets in a colourful and lively 15th century spice market. Share the energy of these traders as they trade their wares amongst thieves, merchants and local villagers.

Ideal Venues:

- Central Market (Kuala Lumpur)

Little India

Absorb the energy and excitement of Malaysia’s Indian culture and traditions amidst bright saris, kaleidoscopic flower garlands and multi-hued spices. Take in the exotic aromas and watch graceful dancers accompanied by traditional singers and musicians. Experience a fortune-telling parrot, teh tarik (Malaysia’s own ‘tea-a-chino’), learn sari tying and enjoy a banana leaf curry.

Ideal Venues:

- Batu Caves (Kuala Lumpur)
- Little India Brickfields (Kuala Lumpur)

Peranakan Traditions

Peranakans or Nyonya (females) and Baba (men) are one of Malaysia’s unique cultural communities that resulted from the intermarriage of Chinese immigrants and local Malays. Savour delicious Nyonya treats served on traditional long-tables in the ornate surroundings of a Nyonya-Baba mansion while being entertained by Peranakan theatre.

Ideal Venues:

- Pinang Peranakan Mansion (Penang)
- Melaka

Ideal Venues:

- Suffolk House (Penang)
- Eastern & Oriental Hotel (Penang)
- Fort Cornwallis (Penang)
- Sarawak Court House (Sarawak)

Colonial Splendor

Relive the colonial era; a time when planters established cash crops, and swashbuckling adventurers made their fortune. Dress for an occasion of opulence, sumptuous food and classic entertainment.

Ideal Venues:

- Mari Mari Cultural Village Monsopiad (Sabah)
- Sarawak Cultural Village (Sarawak)

Sarawak Cultural Village

Headhunter Trail

Borneo is an island of mystery, legend and folklore that was once home to fierce warriors and headhunters. While heads are no longer prized, the traditions live on with many tribal communities respected for their hunting prowess. Explore a typical village, admire the colourful dresses, ornate tattoos, extended ear-lobes of older women and participate in the native dancing and singing. Learn how to use a blowpipe, enjoy traditional food sourced from the jungle and drink the local 'jungle juice' called tuak.

Thean Hou Temple

Ideal Venues:

- Khoo Kongsi (Penang)
- Thean Hou Temple (Kuala Lumpur)

Festive Chinatown

Chinese cultural traditions are best experienced in Chinatown amidst distinctive architecture, temples, bustling street-life and aromatic food. Partake in Chinese arts and cultural activities in ornate Chinese clan-houses including calligraphy, Chinese tea making and auspicious Chinese opera. Dress in decorative robes, be carried in a regal sedan chair and enjoy a delicious Chinese banquet.

Team Building

Nothing beats learning together in an innovative environment.
Acquire new skills while discovering all there is to know about fascinating Malaysia.

Khoo Kongsi (Penang)

Ideal Location:

- Main cities in Malaysia

My City Race

Malaysia's colourful history and hidden secrets are best unlocked on foot or hitching a ride on a Harley. Learn and compete simultaneously while discovering our cities in Malaysia's own version of the "Amazing Race". Take up the challenge and discover the intricacies of Malaysian culture, heritage, food and its people.

Ideal Location:

- Spice Garden (Penang)
- Laman Padi (Langkawi)
- Bayan Indah (Selangor)
- Local Villages

Masak-Masak

Face off against judges and your peers to determine the best Masak-Masak team. Get to the heart of Malaysia's unique cuisine and cooking techniques using exotic herbs and spices. Start the challenge at the wet market before racing off to the kitchen for a major cook-out.

Chingay Procession

Create your own Chingay parade while lifting and balancing Chingay flag poles. Be taught by skillful Chingay masters and then form teams to compete against each other to see who can balance the ten-metre flagpole the longest.

Ideal Location:

- Penang

Rhythm of the Land

There's something about the rhythmic beating of drums and percussion instruments that generate excitement and enjoyment. Drums are important in Malaysian culture as many traditional percussion instruments from around Asia are played here. Learn some basic rhythms and then compose a percussive piece to determine a winner.

Ideal Location:

- Main Cities

The Art of the Lion Dance

Part mythology, tradition and entertainment, lion dances are part of Chinese New Year celebrations heralding in an abundance of wealth, good health and prosperity. Teams learn basic lion dance movements and join the drummers in performing against competing teams.

Ideal Location:

- Main Cities

White Water Thrills and Spills

Join this awesome adventure on one of Malaysia's wild rivers flowing through lush tropical rainforest. Team effort is essential to stay afloat whilst thrills and a few spills are guaranteed and the sense of achievement is paramount.

Ideal Location:

- Selangor River (Selangor)
- Kiulu River (Sabah)
- Perak River (Perak)
- Padas River (Sabah)

Ideal Location:

- Georgetown (Penang)
- Melaka

Trishaw Heritage Trail

Trishaws were once the main means of transportation in Penang and there is still no better way to get up close to this historic city dubbed the 'Pearl of the Orient'. Around every corner something new presents itself and adds to the magic of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Team up with your colleagues to unravel the city's colourful past.

Sepang International Circuit

Adrenaline Race

Be part of the exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of Sepang International Circuit. Learn how a race such as the Formula One is managed and get access to areas with the highest security during events. Then take the wheel of a racecar and go blazing round the circuit to see if you have what it takes to race. Have an amazing day out while learning about the motorsports industry!

Ideal Location:

- Sepang International Circuit
(Selangor)

Ideal Location:

- Royal Selangor Visitor Centre
(Kuala Lumpur)

School of Hard Knocks

Learn the intricate art of pewter making and take home your very own pewter dish that you've personalised yourself with the help of experienced pewtersmiths. Once you're done, you'll be presented with a certificate to attest to your newfound skills, and you get to take home the dish and apron too.

❖ Corporate Social Responsibility

Learn more about Malaysia's exotic wildlife, eco-systems and tribal communities. Join us in our efforts and contributions to saving the planet.

Matang Wildlife Centre (Sarawak)

Ideal Location:

- Sabah
- Sarawak

Great Ape Encounter

The orangutan, or 'person of the forest' is a much-loved international icon of the rainforest. Spend a day in the life of the unsung heroes who sacrifice time and effort to bring these gentle giants of Borneo's forests back from the brink of extinction.

Ideal Location:

- Terengganu
- Pahang

Coral Enrichment

Malaysia has one of the world's most complex and richest marine ecosystems. Waters off Sabah form part of the Coral Triangle which is so ecologically complex that it's known as the 'Amazon of the Sea'. These waters support the world's highest coral and reef fish diversity. Participate in coral enrichment, marine surveys or reef cleaning programmes.

Ideal Location:

- Sabah
- Pahang
- Langkawi

Save the Turtles

Four of the world's seven marine turtles live in Malaysian waters. However, turtle numbers have been depleted worldwide and Malaysia is reversing this trend with turtle hatchery programmes. Help rangers in monitoring turtle numbers and releasing hatchlings to the sea.

Elephant Conservation

Wild Asian elephants roam through remote expanses of Malaysia's tropical rainforests. Elephants encroaching upon farms may be relocated to places like the Kuala Gandah Elephant Sanctuary, two hours from Kuala Lumpur. Help care for these majestic mammals including washing them in a jungle stream.

Ideal Location:

- Kuala Gandah (Pahang)

Have a Heart, Build a Hut

In many Malaysian tribal communities, building homes is a communal activity. Join in this community spirit, work with the locals and learn from them while building a permanent reminder of your visit.

Ideal Location:

- Selangor
- Sabah
- Sarawak

Ideal Location:

- Sabah
- Sarawak
- Forest Research Institute of Malaysia (FRIM)

Let's Meet & Green™

The world will never have enough trees but Malaysians are helping reduce their carbon footprint by planting more trees. Every bit helps and for those who believe in working together to create change, join the growing trend, plant a tree, start a forest and offset your carbon footprint.

❖ Unique Venues

From breath-taking views of nature, to historically-rich ambience, to idyllic islands and iconic landmarks, all served with Malaysia's renowned hospitality and exotic cuisines. You'll find a truly extraordinary place for a once in a lifetime experience.

Facts about Malaysia

Strategic Location

Malaysia is located in the heart of Southeast Asia and between the two giant economies of China and India. Asia is also where over 55% of the world's population reside. It is easily accessible from all parts of the world by air, land and sea.

Air Access

Over 60 airlines including low-cost carriers provide direct access to Malaysia from more than 100 destinations worldwide. International airport hubs in Malaysia include Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Langkawi, Kota Kinabalu and Kuching. Malaysia is also well-served by 15 domestic airports. The Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) is the main gateway.

Duration from KLIA to Kuala Lumpur:

- 28 minutes on the KLIA Ekspres, a high-speed rail service. Ref: www.klia.com.my
- 45 minutes' drive by highway

Malaysia Airlines is the national carrier of Malaysia and a full-fledged member of oneworld alliance that connects to over 850 destinations in 150 countries across the oneworld alliance network and domestic routes. Air Asia, a low-cost carrier, provides extensive connections within Malaysia and the region as well.

Excellent Value for Money

Malaysia offers excellent value for money, international standard products and services.

MALAYSIA CONVENTION & EXHIBITION BUREAU

The Malaysia Convention and Exhibition Bureau (MyCEB) was established in 2009 by the Ministry of Tourism Malaysia, to further strengthen the country's business events brand and to position the country as one of the world's leading international business events (meetings, incentives, conventions and exhibitions) destinations. MyCEB serves as a central hub to assist meeting and event planners to bid for and stage regional and international business events in Malaysia and to act as a conduit for national product development.

For support and assistance in planning corporate and incentive events in Malaysia, please contact MyCEB sales representatives:
